AT A GLANCE

AI PHONE ANSWERING

ReliaReceptionist

An AI front desk that knows your business.

An AI receptionist answers your business number, answers questions from your own website and documents, books appointments, takes messages and puts callers through to a person, within limits you set.

20	100–800	1	365 days
voices, English and Canadian French	answered minutes included monthly	Canadian or US number included	of call transcripts kept

Callers get a real answer

It searches your questions and answers, documents and website pages before it speaks, and is instructed never to make an answer up.

A person is always reachable

It rings the people you list, takes a message when nobody picks up, and falls back to a route of last resort.

The bill stays predictable

A minute budget per receptionist and an overage spend cap stop the AI before costs run past what you allowed.
